Welcome to Salesforce Learning Week 2017

How to start Learning with Salesforce

Take your learning experience to the next level; choose from all the available options:

Capgemini University Learning Catalog

Visit the course catalog page and search for “Salesforce as Technology partner” in the search box to get a list of the available Salesforce courses. Note that the courses are being updated regularly.

Join the Salesforce Partner and Partner Training Communities

Connect to other Salesforce professionals and collaborate on topics of your interest; find suitable trainings and learning path.

Trailhead

Use to your advantage the free Salesforce Learning portal – you can choose your option and start your learning journey with guided trails for Admin/Developer/Business User, or you can jump into a more hands-on approach called Projects.

Salesforce University Certification Paths

Follow from Salesforce University recommended certification paths. No matter what your role is, achieving your goals starts with getting Salesforce certified; this guide will help you to get there.
